WED @ 6:30pm

Workbook $20

KINGDOM CULTURE the sermon on the mount

“Kingdom Culture: The Sermon On the Mount” by Tara Beth Leach, starts Tuesday, May 1, and last Wednesday evening. (You can still join that class!). Experience the power of the kingdom in your world today. The Sermon on the Mount contains some of Jesus's most surprising, puzzling, and profound teachings. He calls us to give up our worrying, to love our enemies, and to rejoice when we are persecuted. In this 8-week video study, you will explore the context surrounding this important passage in the New Testament and the implications Christ's teachings have for your personal spiritual growth. Learn to live the kind of life Jesus requires of His disciples—the kind of life that will bring to earth the Kingdom Culture.

"From Failure to Forgiven"

Series: Final Instructions

John 21:1-19

Big Idea: The journey of redemption allows us to step back into productive ministry and value to the kingdom.

1. Jesus _____ for him (Mark 16:7) Peter may have failed...

...in the _____ ...but Jesus sent for him.

...with the _____ servant...but Jesus sent for him.

...in the _____ ...but Jesus sent for him.

2. Jesus _____ with him (Luke 24:34)

• Sin _____ us from God and from God's people.

• Jesus makes a special appearance to Peter on Easter Sunday.

Confession and forgiveness must be as public/private as the sin.

3. Jesus _____ Peter (John 21)

• _____, in this case, was the necessary prerequisite to eventual success.

4. Jesus _____ him (John 21:15-17)

• Why did Jesus have this conversation in this particular place?

Jesus wanted to _____ Peter's mind on the place of his denials.

• Why did Jesus ask Peter three questions? Perhaps because

Jesus wanted Peter to _____ the truth about himself.

• Why did Jesus ask if Peter loved Him more than the others did?

Jesus was _____ the wound of pride so it could be healed

• Why did Jesus question Peter with the type of love he had?

Jesus is using the word _____ or "unconditional love". Peter is responding with _____, or "I love ya buddy!" - It is a brotherly love or close friendship. Perhaps because Peter needed to be _____ with the type of love he was committed to.

5. Jesus _____ him.

Child care is available for both services. Please check the back of the bulletin for locations.
