Matthew 6:24, Luke 16:9-13; I Tim. 6:9-10

Big Idea: No man can serve two masters. He will either serve the master of money, or of God. If you choose to serve God with your money you will be blessed with significance, influence, and true riches.

1. What is Mammon?

- "Mammon" means self-_____
- "Mammon" means _____
- "Mammon" is a _____

Mammon is a spirit of self-sufficiency and confusion that _____ on money. Money that has been _____ to God, rather than _____ God, will be blessed, and protected. Money that has been _____ from God has the spirit of Mammon on it. The only way to have the Spirit of God on your money, according to scripture, is you give the first 10% of it to God (your _____ and your _____). The which has been _____ has the ability to be blessed, protected and used of God. Mammon is looking for _____. Mammon promises us things that only _____ can give us! If you are trusting your money to give you significance, freedom, happiness, or security, you are _____ God. Mammon is a spirit of self-sufficiency that seeks to draw us _____ from dependence on _____.

2. Is money evil?

- The _____ of money is evil (I Tim. 6:10)
- The money that _____ is godly (Luke 16:9)

3. How do I honor God with my money? (Luke 16:10)

- Be a good _____. (Luke 16:10)
- Be trustworthy to give what God owns (Luke 10:12)
- Be focused on people—the true riches (Luke 10:11)

Child care is available for both services. Please check the back of the bulletin for locations.
