

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

New Wednesday Night Classes Starting

There are many types of addictions. Would you like to be free from that addiction? A free, confidential class will be starting January 9 for seven weeks. If you are interested call the office or mark "F" on the Response Box on your Connection Card. One participant said the following about the class. "I really enjoyed the freedom from addiction class. It was able to teach me how to be free and to give me the tools to maintain the freedom."

Where does God fit in the origin of the cosmos? Is the theory of Evolution accurate or was God telling us the truth when He offered Moses the story of Creation?

Jon Ladines has spent extensive time asking and researching answers to these questions. He explores both belief structures honestly and offers insightful instruction to us in an engaging class. We are happy to bring back this class for those who missed it or who are wanting more.

"Walking with People of Faith"

Numbers 13:1-3; 13:26-14:3

Big Idea: The quality of your fellow travelers may either expedite your spiritual victory, or set you on a difficult path.

Lessons to learn about our fellow travelers:

The _____ of your spiritual journey is often affected by the _____ of your fellow-travelers.

These fellow spies were leaders, practical and forgetful. They asked the wrong questions.

Who are you walking the spiritual journey with?

Suggestions:

1. Find someone who will _____ you up, not _____ you down.

- Purposely find someone who is more _____ than you spiritually.
- Find someone who will _____ you the hard questions.
- Find someone who _____ will intentionally disciple.

2. Be careful to walk the journey with people who will _____ the instructions of _____, no matter what.

- The research team made their report to the wrong person.
- They _____ their authority.
- They focused on if they _____ go, instead of _____ they should go.

3. Partner with fellow-travelers who are _____ to God's _____ outcome.

Child care is available for both services. Please check the back of the bulletin for locations.
