

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

Segun and Yemi Akinbade truly display the heart of service. Both are willing to do service in ways that can be seen.

Yemi worships God in her leadership on the Worship Team that helps people to enter into God’s presence. Segun steps into his office as an usher with a willing heart.

However, it’s often in those areas of service that are not seen where the true character of people emerge. For several years, the Akinbades have trimmed our hedges and bushes faithfully. The whole family will show up and take on the task with almost celebratory energy. They keep our facility looking so nice and few people, until now, have had any idea who was responsible for the presentation that is our weekly welcome. We thank Yemi and Segun for their faithful service.
