

MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

Few men present the unassuming wisdom that Farrell distributes to many people in such a way that seems more like he's listening than speaking. For decades Farrell has had a passion to direct men in particular to a vibrant relationship with Christ. MASH and Man Camp wouldn't have happened without Farrell's readiness to be a part of the formation and eventually to lead the team.

Farrell and his wife, Deb, have led a Life Group for years that has been instrumental in shaping the lives of scores of families. Because of the selfless way that Farrell and Deb both serve their Life Group family, they are viewed as grandparents to a host of children ranging from adults to infancy.

Presently Farrell serves on the church board. Much of the new landscaping was installed by him and a team that he led.

We are blessed to have men of such stellar character like Farrell and those he sharpens as his graceful life strikes a fresh edge on men across our fellowship. As you see Farrell this month, let him know how much you appreciate the blessing he has brought to hundreds of people.
